Frederick County Commission for Women to honor
Lisa Ausherman for the Woman of Excellence Award, Tyla Massey with the Outstanding Student Leadership Award and Viv Wayne with the Unsung Hero Award

In celebration of Women's History Month, the Frederick County Commission for Women announces the recipients of the 2015 Woman of Excellence, Student Leadership and Unsung Hero Awards. The awards will be presented at the 11th Annual Leadership Alliance Dinner on Thursday, March 19, 2015, 6 p.m. at the Ceresville Mansion, Frederick, MD.

The Woman of Excellence award recipients:

Lisa Ausherman, Co-Founder and Chair of The Ausherman Family Foundation

The Woman of Excellence award winner is being honored for: demonstrating courage and strength of character, dedicating time and talent toward growth and development of their community, contributing as a volunteer and goes "above & beyond" her responsibilities.

The Student Leadership award winner: Tyla Massey, 2014 Oakdale High School Graduate, Frederick Community Honors College and Community Volunteer

The Student Award recognizes her commitment in taking on leadership positions that require a significant amount of time, energy, enthusiasm, effort, and thought. The recipient has made a demonstrable impact on improving the quality of the student experience at her school or in her community and serves as role model to other students.

The Unsung Hero Award recipient is Ms. Viv Wayne, Founder and CEO of 4 Ever Bloom.

The Unsung hero is presented to an individual who has made substantive contribution in promoting the Frederick County Commission For Women mission and has volunteered countless hours to the organization.
